APPOINTMENT AGREEMENT

1. This Appointment Agreement is between the natural person or business entity that signs below (“you,” “your,” or “yourself”) and the Member of the AEGON Insurance Group (the “Company”) that signs a schedule to this Appointment Agreement (a “Schedule”). If one Company signs one Schedule and another Company signs another Schedule, this Appointment Agreement and one Schedule shall be deemed a separate agreement from this Appointment Agreement and the other Schedule.

2. You are an independent contractor and not an employee of the Company. You may solicit applications for the Company only for: (a) those of the Company’s non-securities products that are listed in a Schedule; and/or (b) those of the Company’s securities products that are listed in an agreement regarding the sale of the Company’s securities products which is in force between the Company and a broker-dealer of which you are a registered representative (“Your Broker-Dealer”). You may not sell the Company’s securities products if such an agreement is not in force between the Company and Your Broker-Dealer, or if you are not a registered representative of, and in good standing with, Your Broker Dealer. (After this paragraph “Product” refers to a non-securities or a securities product of the Company unless otherwise indicated, and refers to a non-securities or securities product of an affiliate of the Company where indicated.)

You must comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws, including without limitation any law requiring that you protect the privacy of nonpublic information that you have about an applicant, owner, insured, annuitant, beneficiary or other person who seeks to obtain, obtains or has obtained a Product or service from the Company that is to be used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, and any law regarding the suitability of products sold by insurance agents. If you receive any such nonpublic information from the Company, you will use the information only in connection with your performance under this Appointment Agreement and as permitted by law. You must comply with all applicable anti-money laundering laws, rules and government guidance, including the reporting, recordkeeping and compliance requirements of the Bank Secrecy Act (“BSA”), as amended by The International Money Laundering Abatement and Financial Anti-Terrorism Act of 2002, Title III of the USA Patriot Act of 2001 (“The Act”), its implementing regulations, and related SEC and Self Regulatory Organization rules. These requirements include requirements to identify and report currency transactions and suspicious activity, to verify customer identity and to conduct customer due diligence. As required by the Act, the Company certifies that it maintains, and you certify that you have access to, a comprehensive anti-money laundering compliance program that includes policies, procedures and internal controls for complying with the BSA; policies, procedures and internal controls for identifying, evaluating and reporting suspicious activity; a designated compliance officer or officers; training for appropriate employees; and an independent audit function. You must comply with all written rules that the Company communicates to you from time to time including the Company’s Principles and Code of Ethical Market Conduct.

You may collect initial premiums for Products, but you may not collect other premiums for Products. You must keep initial premiums that you collect separate from your own funds, and you must promptly send initial premiums that you collect to the Company. You must promptly deliver Products to the appropriate applicants, and you must promptly return to the Company any Product that an applicant does not accept.

You may not: bind the Company by any promise or agreement; accept a promissory note for, or incur any obligation on behalf of, the Company; waive any of the Company’s rights or requirements regarding, or any provision of, a Product; use any of the Company’s names, logos or trademarks without the Company’s prior written consent; advertise any Product or the Company unless the Company provides the advertisement to you or has previously given you its written approval of the advertisement; or begin any legal proceeding on behalf of the Company without the Company’s prior written consent.

You may recommend that the Company enter into Appointment Agreements with other natural persons and entities, but the Company is not obligated to do so. Any such person or entity that the Company does enter into an Appointment Agreement with shall be referred to as “Your Agent”. Your Agents may recommend that the Company enter into Appointment Agreements with other persons or entities, and if the Company does so, those persons and entities will also be considered Your Agents. You are responsible for ensuring the training and supervision of Your Agents and encouraging Your Agents to comply with their Appointment Agreements. You are responsible for all expenses and debts to the Company that you and Your Agent(s) incur.

3. After giving you reasonable notice, the Company may visit your office, examine your files and records and accompany you while you represent the Company, all at reasonable times. The Company may require you to maintain errors and omissions insurance on yourself with an insurance company, and in form and amount, satisfactory to the Company. The Company may at any time stop doing business in any state or area within a state, stop offering any Product for sale, or change any term of a Product or any condition under which the Company may offer a Product.

4. The Company will pay commissions to you while this Appointment Agreement is in force and after it terminates, according to a Schedule, on commissionable premiums which the Company earns from non-securities Products that are shown on the Schedule and are sold by you or Your Agents who report directly or indirectly to you. However, the Company will reduce commissions payable to you by the total of commissions paid by the Company to Your Agents who report directly or indirectly to you, and by the total of commissions forfeited by Your Agents if the Company terminates its agreement with Your Agent pursuant to (d) through (f) of section 6 of this Appointment Agreement. The Company will pay service fees to you while this Appointment Agreement is in force, according to a Schedule, on commissionable premiums which the Company earns from non-securities Products, shown on the Schedule, that you sell, so long as you personally service the owners of the non-securities Products. Premiums may include fees or charges that are not commissionable. The Company will not pay commissions to you for selling the Company’s securities Products, except that the Company may do so if the Company is an affiliate of Your Broker-Dealer. Otherwise, you must look to Your Broker-Dealer, and not to the Company, for any commission that may be payable to you for selling the Company’s securities Products. You may assign your right to receive commissions and service fees under this Appointment Agreement, but only with the Company’s prior written consent, which the Company may give in its sole discretion.

The Company may pay commissions and service fees on the conversion of term life insurance, at the insured’s attained age, to another Product as it would pay commissions and service fees on the other Product without regard to the conversion. The Company may pay commissions and service fees on a reinstated Product to the insurance agent responsible for the reinstatement, and commissions to the insurance agents to whom the responsible insurance agent directly or indirectly reports.

The Company will determine the commissions and service fees, if any, that the Company may pay to you in respect of a Product that the Company issues on an insured or annuitant within 12 months after a halt in the payment of premiums on a Product previously issued by the Company or one of its affiliates on the same insured or annuitant, or within 12 months after the previously issued Product of the Company or its affiliate lapses or is surrendered in whole or in part. The Company will determine whether or not to debit your commission and service fee account (“Your Account”) for part or all of the commissions and service fees that the Company credited to Your Account in respect of a Product that the Company issued on an insured or annuitant within 12 months prior to a halt in the payment of premiums on, or within 12 months prior to the lapse or surrender in whole or in part of, another Product that the Company or one of its affiliates had previously issued on the same insured or annuitant.

If the Company refunds premiums or determines that it should not have paid commissions or service fees to you, the Company will debit Your Account by an amount equal to the commissions and service fees previously credited to Your Account in respect of the refunded premiums or the commissions and services fees determined by the Company not to have been payable. The Company may also debit Your Account from time to time for the debts of Your Agents and for miscellaneous expenses that you incur, such as fees charged by states for renewal of your appointments with the Company. The Company will send you periodic statements of Your Account.

5. While this Appointment Agreement is in force and after its termination you may not convey or disclose to any person or entity any of the Company's property, for any reason. The Company's property includes, without limitation, all information or supplies provided by the Company to you regarding: Products; the selling of Products; applicants for, owners and beneficiaries of, persons insured by, and annuitants of, Products; and the recruiting, training and compensation of insurance agents. On termination of this Appointment Agreement, you must promptly return to the Company all of its property.

While this Appointment Agreement is in force and for two (2) years after its termination, you may not: induce an employee or insurance agent of the Company or one of its affiliates to end his or her association with the Company or the affiliate; or induce an owner of a Product of the Company or one of its affiliates to halt the payment of premiums on the Product, allow the Product to lapse, or surrender the Product in whole or in part.

If you breach or threaten to breach this section 5, the Company will be entitled to an injunction restraining you from the breach or threatened breach, as well as to other appropriate relief, including without limitation money damages and reimbursement of attorney fees and other expenses incurred by the Company in seeking the injunction or other relief. If you breach this section you forfeit your right to receive commissions and service fees from the Company. This section will survive the termination of this Appointment Agreement.

6. This Appointment Agreement will terminate on the earliest occurrence of the following events:
- (a) your failure to obtain or renew any license that, by law, you are required to have in order to sell Products (“Your License”);
 - (b) your death or, if you are a business entity, your dissolution;
 - (c) the 30th day after the date of a written notice of termination (a “Termination Notice”) that Company may send to you by first class U.S. mail, postage prepaid, or on the 30th day after the date of a Termination Notice that you may send to the Company, in either case for a reason other than one described elsewhere in this section 6 or for no reason;
 - (d) the 30th day after the date of a Termination Notice that the Company may send to you, if you commit a material breach of this Appointment Agreement, or you commit a material violation of applicable law;
 - (e) the suspension or revocation of Your License, or on the refusal of a lawful authority to renew Your License; and
 - (f) your conviction of a crime that, according to the The Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, makes it a crime for you to willfully participate in the business of insurance.

7. This Appointment Agreement and a Schedule form the entire agreement between the Company and yourself concerning matters covered by this Appointment Agreement. This Appointment Agreement terminates and replaces any prior agreement between the Company and yourself concerning matters covered by this Appointment Agreement. One Company's Schedule terminates and replaces any prior Schedule of the same Company. This Appointment Agreement can be amended only by a document signed by the Company and you. From time to time the Company may amend a Schedule by giving you prior notice. Such amendments to a Schedule shall take effect as provided in such notice.

8. Any failure by the Company to enforce any part of this Appointment Agreement will not be deemed a waiver by the Company of its right to enforce this Appointment Agreement according to its terms and applicable law. This Appointment Agreement is governed by Iowa law.

9. BY SIGNING BELOW, YOU CERTIFY TO THE COMPANY THAT: THE INFORMATION YOU HAVE GIVEN IN THE APPLICATION FOR APPOINTMENT AGREEMENT IS TRUE AND COMPLETE; THE SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER OR TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER ON THE APPLICATION FOR APPOINTMENT AGREEMENT IS CORRECT, AND YOU ARE NOT CURRENTLY SUBJECT TO BACKUP WITHHOLDING; YOU AGREE TO COMPLY WITH THE COMPANY'S ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING PROGRAM; AND YOU HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THIS APPOINTMENT AGREEMENT AND AGREE TO BE BOUND BY ITS TERMS.

PROMISSORY NOTE, GUARANTY AND SECURITY AGREEMENT

For value received, the natural person or business entity that signs below (“you,” “your” or “yourself”) promises to repay in full, on the date when your Appointment Agreement with a member of the AEGON Insurance Group (the “Company”) terminates, the following indebtedness to the Company that you may incur, plus interest accrued thereon to the date of repayment: unearned commissions advanced by the Company to you and debited to your commission and service fee account (“Your Account”), special advances made by the Company to you and debited to Your Account, any amount debited to Your Account equal to commissions and service fees previously paid by the Company to you in respect of premiums later refunded by the Company or commissions and services fees determined by the Company not to have been payable to you, and any amount debited to Your Account for miscellaneous expenses that you incur which the Company pays on your behalf. This Promissory Note, Guaranty and Security Agreement (this “Agreement”) shall be deemed a separate Agreement between yourself and each Company with which you have an Appointment Agreement, except that any terms which are defined in your Appointment Agreement shall have the same meaning in this Agreement.

You guarantee to repay in full, on the date of the Company’s demand for repayment, any like indebtedness to the Company incurred by Your Agent, plus interest accrued thereon to the date of repayment; provided, however, that the Company may not make such a demand prior to the 90th day after the date when Your Agent’s Appointment Agreement with the Company terminates. The Company may collect repayment from you pursuant to this paragraph by debiting Your Account for the amount of Your Agent’s indebtedness to the Company, and by thereafter treating such debit as part of your indebtedness to the Company.

Interest shall accrue on the debits in Your Account, and such interest shall in turn be debited to Your Account, at a rate equal to three quarters of one percent (3/4 of 1.0%) per month. After the calendar year in which your Appointment Agreement with the Company begins, the interest rate shall increase to one percent (1.0%) per month for any month in which the debits in Your Account exceed ten times the total of earned first year commissions that are payable by the Company to you for that month. In no case shall interest accrue at a rate in excess of the maximum interest rate permitted by applicable law. The Company may increase the rate at which interest accrues on debits in Your Account, after giving you 30 days prior notice.

You authorize the Company to prepay your indebtedness to the Company, in full or in part at any time, by offsetting earned commissions, service fees, bonuses and any other cash compensation payable by the Company to you against debits in Your Account.

You hereby grant the Company a continuing security interest in the following collateral, as security for indebtedness that you may incur to the Company and any of its affiliates, and as security for your guarantee of any Debtor Insurance Agent’s indebtedness to the Company: cash value and benefits of any product of the Company or any of its affiliates that you own now or hereafter; any other property that you own which the Company or any of its affiliates holds for you; any money and any other thing of value as it becomes due and payable or transferable by the Company or any of its affiliates, whether now or hereafter, to you, including without limitation commissions, service fees, bonuses, stock options, stock, and amounts payable under qualified and nonqualified deferred compensation plans; and any proceeds of the foregoing. You hereby authorize the Company to take possession of, and to sell or otherwise liquidate, any and all of the collateral, and to apply the collateral and the proceeds thereof to the repayment of your indebtedness to the Company and any of its affiliates and to the payment of your guarantee of any Debtor Insurance Agent’s indebtedness to the Company.

This Agreement shall survive termination of your Appointment Agreement or any other agreement you may have with the Company. This Agreement forms the entire agreement between the Company and yourself concerning matters covered by this Agreement. This Agreement can only be amended by a document signed by the Company and yourself. Any amendment to this Agreement will take effect when signed by the Company at its home office. You agree to pay the Company’s reasonable expenses of enforcing this Agreement, including attorney fees. Any failure by the Company to enforce any part of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver by the Company of its right to enforce this Agreement according to its terms and applicable law. This Agreement is governed by Iowa law.

This Guaranty shall survive termination of Guarantor’s Appointment Agreement or any other agreement Guarantor may have with the Company. This Guaranty forms the entire agreement between the Company and Guarantor concerning matters covered by this Guaranty. This Guaranty can only be amended by a document signed by the Company and Guarantor. Any amendment to this Guaranty will take effect when signed by the Company at its home office.
